Join food writer, Rosemary Moon, at the cookery tent on the Picnic Lawn for free cookery demonstrations showing you how to make sensational spicy summer dishes.

- 11:00am      Poblano peppers. The wonderful Mexican vegetable-type chilli is cooked by Rosemary in a Fusion tossed salad and Amarillo Pork.
- 12:00 noon      Caldero chilli. This medium-hot, thick fleshed chilli is sweet to taste making it ideal for Rosemary's Oriental plum salsa to serve with fish, and fresh, sweet corn kernels cooked in a Sussex Succotash.
- 12.30pm      Chilli healing. Warm your aches and pains away with a spice and chilli coconut enriched liniment for pain and stiffness from expert herbalists Steve Taylor and Wendy Budd.
- 1:00pm      Hungarian Hot Wax Chillies. An all-time favourite cooked by Rosemary in a Tabbouli salsa and North African poached eggs.
- 1.30pm      Chilli healing. Warm your aches and pains away with a spice and chilli coconut enriched liniment for pain and stiffness from expert herbalists Steve Taylor and Wendy Budd.
- 2:00pm      What's hot, what's not? The team from Sea Spring Seeds take the stage to explore chilli-ness and flavour versus heat. Learn from the expert breeders of the Dorset Naga.
- 3:00pm      Hot Chef! Giles Thompson, this valley's Chef, shows us how he uses chillies at The Earl of March and The Partridge Inn.
