

COURSE DETAILS – WEEKEND WE0090

TITLE: VIOL CONSORT MUSIC

TUTOR: ALISON CRUM

LEVEL: INTERMEDIATE/ADVANCED

GENERAL CONTENT OF COURSE:

This course is intended for intermediate and advanced players of treble, tenor or bass viols, who are confident in sight reading and playing one to a part. Students will be accepted in order of application, subject to level of experience and a suitable balance of players. Places are limited and deposits will be refunded if an application cannot be accepted.

17th Century English music will form the main area of study.

Health and Safety: The tutor will instruct students in health and safety issues relevant to this course. There are no health and safety restrictions on access to this studio/teaching space in the absence of the tutor.

ALISON CRUM is one of Britain's foremost viol players. She began her musical career on the French horn, but turned exclusively to early music in the 1970s, studying the viol with Wieland Kuijken in Brussels, and Jordi Savall in Basle. She performs regularly with many of Britain's best early music groups, and with them has made over 80 recordings. She is also in great demand as a teacher and has travelled all over the world giving recitals and teaching on summer schools and workshops. Alison Crum is Professor of Viol at Trinity College of Music in London, and her book 'Play the Viol' is published by Oxford University Press. She is President of the Viola da Gamba Society of Great Britain.
